Autumn 2017-2018 Pre-Registration (July 17 to July 31):

All your choices for Autumn 2017-2018 limited enrollment (Lottery & Consent of Instructor) courses must be submitted during the pre-registration period beginning July 17 and ending July 31, 2017. Follow the instructions below to pre-register for limited enrollment courses. Students who do not pre-register during that time will lose their preferences for Autumn 2017-2018 limited enrollment courses.

2017-2018 Course Descriptions and Class Schedule Grids:

- Course Descriptions: https://www.law.stanford.edu/courses

Room assignments for autumn classes will be added to the class schedules prior to the start of the term.

Limited Enrollment Lottery Courses:

For some courses, the students able to enroll are determined by a lottery conducted by the Registrar's Office. You may bid for limited enrollment lottery courses via the Law Lottery in Axess beginning July 17 and ending July 31, 2017 (11:59 p.m.):
1. Logon to Axess (https://axess.stanford.edu). You will be required to enter your SUNet ID and password.

2. Click the Student tab (wait until the page loads) and then click on Law Lottery from the drop down menu under Other Academic.

3. Under "Limited Enrollment Selections" you may enter up to four (4) choices for lottery-limited enrollment courses in order of preference.

After the lottery has been run, e-mails will go to the Law-2018 and Law-2019 distribution lists telling you to go to Axess to view the results.

Consent of Instructor Courses:

The instructors will admit students to these limited enrollment courses. You may apply for consent of instructor courses by submitting a consent request or a consent application form to the instructor by July 31, 2017 (4:00 p.m.). See course description for detailed instructions.

Consent of Instructor Forms: https://www.law.stanford.edu/organizations/offices/office-of-the-registrar/registration-and-selection/consent-of-instruc

After the consent applications have been processed and reviewed, you will be notified by the Registrar's Office or the instructor of the results of each application you filed: acceptance, waiting list, or rejection. Please note that some instructors may require students notified of acceptance to accept or reject the placement.

If you are admitted to a consent course, you will also receive an email from the Law School Registrar’s Office. We will let you know when you will be able to add the course to your study list in Axess.

Open Enrollment Courses:

Open enrollment courses are open to all interested law students who have met whatever prerequisites are listed. Beginning August 1, 2017, you may add open enrollment courses directly to your autumn study list in Axess. The deadline to add an open enrollment course to your autumn study list is October 13, 2017. If applicable, this will allow you to make open enrollment course selections after knowing the results of the consent of instructor and law lottery courses.

Clinics:

If you have any questions regarding clinics, see Mills Legal Clinic at https://law.stanford.edu/mills-legal-clinic/.

Exterionships:

If you have any questions regarding externships, see Externship Program at https://law.stanford.edu/levin-center/externship-program-2/.
Taking a Stanford University Course Outside the Law School:

See Cross-Registration in Other Schools at https://law.stanford.edu/education/courses/law-students/.

Note:

- Stanford University courses approved for Law School credit without a petition are listed in SLS Navigator at http://slsnavigator.law.stanford.edu/ (Click "Search Courses" tab on the left menu bar).

- If a student wishes to enroll in a course for Law School credit that is not listed in SLSNavigator, the student may petition to take that course. Petition forms are available at https://law.stanford.edu/education/courses/forms-and-petitions/. The petition must be filed with the SLS Registrar’s Office by the Preliminary Study List deadline (or prior to), for the quarter when the class is to be taken.

- Some University courses may have special enrollment instructions and restrictions. See course description in Explore Courses (https://explorecourses.stanford.edu/) or department contact for detailed course information. The course descriptions for 2017-2018 will be posted by August 1, 2017.

If you have any questions, please contact the SLS Registrar’s Office at (650) 723-0994 or email registrar@law.stanford.edu.
