Consider what counts.
By many measures, Stanford Law stands out in the American law school landscape. A close-knit, collegial community; a deep commitment to innovation; an unconventional approach to education—immersive, interdisciplinary, and intensive. These are the advantages that define and distinguish SLS. We invite you to consider what counts in your search for a law school and to imagine how Stanford Law’s strengths might shape your future.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Excellence</th>
<th>Experience</th>
<th>Access</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>GPA range for SLS class of 2022: 3.33–4.20</td>
<td>Clinics: 11</td>
<td>Student-to-faculty ratio: 4 to 1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LSAT range for SLS class of 2022: 160–180</td>
<td>In addition to a clinic, other classes a student will enroll in during a clinic quarter: 0</td>
<td>Classes with 30 students or more (counting first-years): 21%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SLS acceptance rate: 9.7%</td>
<td>Hands-on policymaking practicums offered annually: 15+</td>
<td>Classes with 20 students or fewer: 71%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Community</td>
<td>Student publications and law reviews: 12</td>
<td>Typical size of first-year small section course: 30 students</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>JD population in 2019: 567</td>
<td>Students working on law reviews and journals: 49%</td>
<td>Average size of a 1L Discussion Seminar: 12 students</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Size of first-year class entering in Fall 2019: 180</td>
<td>U.S. Supreme Court cases students have worked on since Spring 2004: 251</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Diversity
SLS receives approximately 4,000 applications every year, from all 50 states, Puerto Rico, and 72 countries.

Students who have been out of college for one or more years before starting SLS: 80.5%

Students who entered in Fall 2019 with an advanced degree: 22.2%

Students of color in the Fall 2019 JD population: 37.7%

Quality of Life
Students who are guaranteed housing in their first year: 100%

Months of the year in which weather makes it difficult to traverse the Stanford campus: 0

SLS is 45 minutes from San Francisco, 30 minutes from the beach, and 3.5 hours from the snow.

Interdisciplinary Learning
Customized joint degrees students can propose: Virtually limitless

Time required to complete most JD/MA programs: 3 years

Programs, centers, and special projects that advance research and solutions to modern-day challenges: 25+

Percentage of the Class of 2019 working in public service who are supported by our Loan Repayment Assistance Program: 19%

Careers
Each fall, 200 employers representing 460 offices in the United States and abroad conduct interviews on campus for summer and permanent positions.

Students in a typical class who clerk after graduation: 40%

2019 graduates placed in jobs within 9 months of graduating or pursuing an advanced degree: 99%

Am Law 100 law firms employing alumni as attorneys or partners, respectively: 95, 94

Median starting salary for an SLS graduate in the class of 2019 (private sector): $190K

Reach
Distance from SLS to Silicon Valley: 0 miles

Overseas law schools with which SLS maintains study abroad programs: 7

Intensive in-country programs that build global competency: 4

Number of participants in a one-of-a-kind quarter: 25

SLS alumni are pursuing careers in 79 countries, 50 states, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, the Marshall Islands, and Washington, D.C.