Notices & Certification

Notices

The American Bar Association requires that applicants for admission to law schools be advised to obtain information regarding the requirements for admission to the bar in the state(s) in which the applicant intends to practice. Please be aware that all states evaluate the moral character and academic accomplishments of applicants for admission to the bar, and some states require registration before beginning the study of law. In addition to a bar examination, there are character, fitness, and other qualifications for admission to the bar in every U.S. jurisdiction. Applicants are encouraged to determine the requirements for any jurisdiction in which they intend to seek admission by contacting the jurisdiction. Addresses for all relevant agencies are available through the National Conference of Bar Examiners.

Stanford University admits qualified students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex, age, disability, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, or marital status to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the University. Consistent with its obligations under the law, in the administration of the University's programs and activities, Stanford prohibits unlawful discrimination on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex, age, disability, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, veteran status, marital status or any other characteristic protected by applicable law; Stanford also prohibits unlawful harassment including sexual harassment and sexual violence. This policy applies to Stanford programs and activities both on and off-campus, including overseas programs.

The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding this nondiscrimination policy: Director of the Diversity and Access Office, Rosa Gonzalez, Kingscote Gardens, 419 Lagunita Drive, Suite 130, Stanford, CA 94305-8230; (650) 723-0755 (voice), (650) 723-1791 (fax), equal.opportunity@stanford.edu (email). Stanford's Title IX Coordinator, Cathy Glaze, has been designated to handle inquiries regarding sexual harassment and sexual violence: Kingscote Gardens (2nd floor), 419 Lagunita Drive, Stanford, CA 94305, (650) 497-4955 (voice), (650) 497-9257 (fax), titleix@stanford.edu (email). Individuals may also file complaints directly with the Office of Civil Rights, within the United States Department of Education, by following the information on this website: <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/complaintintro.html>.

Stanford University complies with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. Stanford's policies and statistics under this act are posted on the Department of Public Safety website at <https://police.stanford.edu/security-report.html>. A paper copy can be obtained by calling the Stanford Department of Public Safety at (650) 723-9633 or by sending an email to PublicSafety@lists.stanford.edu.

_____ I acknowledge the above.

Certification

If you are offered admission, Stanford reserves the right to withdraw that offer of admission (even after enrolled attendance) if: 1) you show a significant drop in academic performance or fail to graduate for your current program; 2) there has been a misrepresentation in or a violation of any of the terms of the Stanford Law School (SLS) application process; 3) we learn that you have engaged in behavior prior to the first day of enrolled SLS attendance that indicates a serious lack of judgment or integrity; or 4) you reserve a place in our entering class and make an enrollment commitment or make a deposit at another law school. Stanford further reserves the right to require you to provide additional information and/or authorization for the release of information about any such matter.

By submitting this application electronically, I agree to the terms and conditions of the Stanford Law School admissions process (including those stated in the Visiting Exchange Students Information and Procedure section on the Stanford Law School website). I hereby certify that the information provided on this application form and in any attached materials is true and complete, and that the personal statement and any submitted essays are my own work. I shall promptly inform the Law School if there is any change in any of the facts indicated herein. I also understand and agree that acceptance is conditional upon meeting any further requirements, terms, or conditions expressed at the time of acceptance. The Law School does not authorize nor is it bound by any requirements or conditions other than those communicated by the Office of Admissions.

_____ I acknowledge and agree to the above.
